Exploring Justice: THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

We invite you to join us in a “pilot run” of a new study that the Massachusetts Bible Society is producing.

This is a forthcoming four-volume Bible study series that will examine the justice issues of our day through the lens of the Ten Commandments. Issues included are: Nationalism, Free Speech, Freedom of Religion, American Exceptionalism, Guns, Partisan Politics, Separation of Church and State, Taking a Knee, Removal of Confederate Monuments, the US Flag Code, America First, and Wealth Inequality.

The format involves six 90 minute sessions. We will be offering Exploring Justice: THE TEN COMMANDMENTS on Thursday afternoons from 12:00 – 1:30 p.m. beginning October 11 and ending November 15. You are welcome to bring your lunch and join us for Brown-Bag-Bible Study. We hope to have a group of 8-15 people.

Please call St. Peter’s Lutheran Church office at 508-432-5172 to sign up or contact Pr. Christian Holleck with questions at matthew14_27@comcast.net.
